

USSTRATCOM ASSESSMENT PROGRAM

CDR Sterling Greni, USSTRATCOM/J371
Joint Training & Exercise Division
grenisr@stratcom.mil, DSN 271-3455

OUTLINE

- STRATCOM Assessment Process
- Joint Staff Message Responses

ASSESSMENT PROCESS

- Exercise Inputs
 - During Exercises JMETL Tasks are Observed/Reported
- End of Year
 - Collect Inputs from Training Audiences
 - Review Exercise Results
- Assemble Inputs
- Produce Assessment

MESSAGE RESPONSES

- At What Level is the Training Assessment Briefed?
 - It is not briefed however the JTP is coordinated throughout the command and signed by the Deputy Commander

MESSAGE RESPONSES

- Does your Combatant Command Training Assessment Program enable the Combatant Commander to Evaluate the Capability to Accomplish their Assigned Missions?
 - No, JMETL tasks are training based only and not related to all capabilities.

MESSAGE RESPONSES

- Does your Combatant Command Conduct Operational Assessment?
 - No

MESSAGE RESPONSES

- Explain How Training Assessments are Tied to Phase I, Requirements of the JTS?
 - The results of the assessment impact the structure and content of subsequent exercises. Results are also fed back into subsequent exercise development as soon as possible to verify and validate fixes.
 - More of a Direct Link to Phase II?

MESSAGE RESPONSES

- What Shortfalls/Deficiencies Currently Exist in your Training Assessment Program that Adversely Impact the Commanders Ability to Adequately Assess Mission Readiness?
 - The program would benefit from a more detailed assessment from the TFs and staff.

Questions?

